Believe, Become, Empower

As I lay on a stretcher with a broken neck a gold light slowly covered my entire body. Next, two visions appeared directing me on how to lead a better life. The surgeon said, "best case paralysis" but I instantly knew that with Belief in wellness, Becoming the speaker envisioned, and working to Empower audiences far and wide, I would walk out of the hospital. The entire staff on duty referred to me as "the walking miracle."

How to Build A Global Audience

My entire sales career was spent pursuing clientele. The moment social media was announced, I thought to myself, "Finally my wish come true - audiences will pursue me!" With the right strategies in place audiences will learn how Stutz made her wish come true.

Sales On A Higher Plane

"When you walk in integrity, you never have to change your story" is one of Stutz' favorite tweets out of the thousands she created. She advises audiences the first sale does not matter compared to creating a returning and referring clientele. Accordingly, she has built loyal clients and audiences worldwide.

Although it was just a brief moment, I felt I have encountered a breath of crisp fresh air in a wonderful Autumn morning in that conference room."
